When you and I together giving up would never cross
my mind, you know ill make it up cause ive got something new to try.
Something New, wait, ive got something new.
Its all part of The Show, come on, lets go
Down down down down down down down down

Dont act like I dont know, you have got to talk.
Say what you want, but im not ready to stop.
I'll count to one, and we'll make sure the clock wont tick again, cause we're making the time
stop stop stop stop stop stop stop stop

When you and I together giving up would never cross
my mind, you know ill make it up cause ive got something new to try.
Something New, wait, ive got something new.
Its all part of The Show, come on, lets go
Down down down down down down down down

You talk like I dont here every word you say.
You say I'll give up, but i wont walk away.
Thiers room for one, and that one will make you drop.
Ive done it before, and what I'll do will make your heart
stop stop stop stop stop stop stop stop

When you and I together giving up would never cross
my mind, you know ill make it up cause ive got something new to try.
Something New, wait, ive got something new.

Its all part of The Show, come on, lets go
Down down down down down down down down

You hear me now, ive now learned how,
To make it up to you, ive got to try something new.
To kill the old, and stop the time.
Not my time to shine, make it right right right right right right right right

When you and I together giving up would never cross
my mind, you know ill make it up cause ive got

something new to try.
Something New, wait, ive got something new.
Its all part of The Show, come on, lets go-
When you and I together giving up would never cross
my mind, you know ill make it up cause ive got something new to try.
Something New, wait, ive got something new.
Its all part of The Show, come on, lets go
Down down down down down down down down
Lets go down.
Down down down, oh lets go down.
Dont give up on me!
Its all part of The Show, come on, lets go Down down down down down down down down
