Sometimes I think
There's a hole in my head
And all these memories
Fall out on the bed
Maybe it's time
I changed my point of view
Maybe you're right
There's so much we can do

Say the word
Say the word
You can have it all

Love is all I want to hear
It's what I need from you
You may say I'm wrong
But I don't call this love

Here I am
Feeling like I'm stoned
There's so much to say
I think you outta know
We get along
For me that's something new
Inside your far-out mind
Do you think this too?

Say the word
Say the word
You can have it all

Love is all I want to hear
It's what I need from you
You may say I'm wrong
But I don't call this love

Life's so strange
So tell me something new
I should be spending
My time with you
I should be holding hands with you

I should be making love -- to you

Love is all I want to hear
It's what I need from you
You may say I'm wrong
But I don't call this love

Love is all I want to hear
It's what I need from you
You may say I'm wrong

Love is all I want to hear
It's what I need from you
You may say I'm wrong
