I wanna walk these wounds until they shut their bloody mouths
i wanna cut my tongue until it speaks these words out loud

all i want is darkness, some total fuckin darkness all i want is darkness, forevermore now walk with me, right thru the wounds of black

i walk the wounds of darkness now and anywhere i walk the wounds that i should wear i wanna walk these scars until they draw their final breath

i wanna cut my throat until it spits the word of death

all i want is darkness, some total fuckin darkness

now this is it, the very end of all things

now this is it, the very end of all things now walk with me, right thru the wounds of all you'll ever be now this is it, join the neonecrononsensetrip
