paleskinned invader, of bestial kind starlit impaler, shackled upon this thornthrone of mine beware !

he bears a bejewelled crystalsemen his spawn's a wrathful plague behold !
here comes the thunderbeast prepare for attack !

marblewings, sulphurskin, its nectar burns the air
...the flaming fluid of a feathered fall's flare i am the thunderbeast a creature bred from storms and wars with thousand thunders in my throat and bladesong from a blackfleshed heart scavengerstaves and vultureverses an armed ode for the orphans' orator and savage creators of chaoskings, carriots and calyxcannonades...

eat the universe !
sculpt my starmaid scars !

for i am the plunderer of magenta grandeur nightstalker and maelstromrider berserk maggotmaster, deathdancer's disease firefed predator, i am the thunderbeast...!
