La, la, la, put it in the air,
Blunt so thick, got it looking like a flare Eyes sitting low like I'm looking at a glare Got your b*tch in the stands and she's looking at a player
I never gave a f*ck and I really don't care Running circles round you n*ggas but you're really just squares
And you can't see me n*gga cause your vision's impaired
I look better in the front like a set of (?) Tell them hoes, flight down, flights out, all black, lights out
You know what it is, no time outs
B*tches going down, fly south
You getting played by the doorman While I'm in this b*tch getting paid for performing Big bang 808, knock like the Mormons See your budget hose said it doesn't bring more in

You already know where I'm from so go ahead take another hit
I see you on the silent, this pack got me singing to the sky light
This pack got me singing to the sky light,
This pack got me singing to the sky light
I just need a little time to get my mind right
See a couple pretty girls looking fine light

Holly, Wood in her body, just roll up about to blow up like Saudi(boom)
Find me, riding in space with Wall-e,
Running from the cops like Rodney, don't mind me Cause I ain't psychic, I'm just doing it like Nike Sitting on a cloud like Zeus, just skypin
And I swear my b*tch bad like Aphrodite Fiesty, up through the nightly, Batman shorty, Tell her turn around and I back stabbed shorty Put her right to sleep, yeah, and I knapsack shorty,
And I roll another one like a fat ass hoagie Said I'm on some no buffer sh*t, you should get a load of it

Great, anything less will be lonely
We welcome to the la, la, la one from nigger all I have La, la, la, tell them

You already know where I'm from so go ahead take
another hit
I see you on the silent, this pack got me singing to the
sky light
This pack got me singing to the sky light,
This pack got me singing to the sky light
I just need a little time to get my mind right
See a couple pretty girls looking fine light, looking fine light
This pack got me singing to the sky light,
This pack got me singing to the sky light.
