I call for the dark art!

Wraiths of elders, furious and hark
Bless this cold heart in glorious dark!
Creatures foul and dreadfully sacred
Bless this soul in infinite hatred!

I call for the dark art!

Spirit of wrath, the unclean dead
Bless this flesh with immortal thread!
Fallen kings, ruler of beings
Bless this life as the death of the livings!

I am son of Mammon!
I am disciple of seven crowns!

Earth...

Strengthen me!
Wind...
Strengthen me!
Fire...
Strengthen me!
Water...
Strengthen me!

I call for the dark art!

For your wisdom I pledge you my heart!
For your power I pledge you my soul!
For your cunning I pledge you my flesh!
For your wealth I pledge you my life!
