I scared myself, cause i wanna kill the man.
kill the man who got the gold.
and the strings to my arms and legs I ain't no puppet, I ain't no puppet. but we all gold diggers and everyone loose the gold we love

this ain't the time to give a show
this is the time to let it go
this ain't the way to make it right
this ain't the time to pick a fight this puppeteer moves the house, i live in.

recreate the delusion of life (cause we got the gold) so forgiveble just role ahead, baby. just role ahead, baby.
cause it's all ain't worth quited.
when you loose the gold you love.

this ain't the time to give a show
this is the time to let it go
this ain't the way to make it right so let it fly, let it fly.

(instrumental)

this ain't the time to give a show
this is the time to let it go
this ain't the way to make it right
this ain't the time to pick a fight

this ain't the time to give a show
this is the time to let it go
this ain't the way to make it right i may look cold, but i'm eager to fight (4x)
