I'm a ghost from a different town
I'm the king with the darkest crown
When you think you're up, I will take you down
Serial Killer on the loose
Right on

If you fear the reaper, you don't know about me
All is hidden by my mask of sanity
No excuse, no taboos, this mind is free

The dead live on so very gloriously
That's what they get when they've been with me
No disease, just the proof there's no belief

If there's no law, there's no guilty to plead
There is no good, no bad, because there is me
No excuse, no taboos, this mind is free

No excuse, no taboos, this mind is free
