"Boys Be Suspicious"

Visit "Boys Be Suspicious" on MotoLyrics.com

A distortion felt by a single young boy Knowing the true face of this world
"Everyone started dying"

Heartbeats getting stronger, evident actions
For a bright future
This knife was grabbed

This is the signal

"I'm like that, an awkward chameleon walking alone
I knew about this vanity tinted by the colours around it"

The expression of present time=imitation of present condition

Implicitness--->Default abuse standard

Extensively generating epigonen

It's this kind of system

"There must be something I'm good at Since I don't want to die in a cage"

Born and dropped into this world, from this time always
in suspicion,
Without understanding what is correct, I kept walking pretending not to see
But after all, what is correct is a standard of value
chosen by humans
Being able of honesty towards your own heart must be correct

Born and dropped into this world, from this time always
in suspicion,
Without understanding what is correct, I kept walking
pretending not to see
But after all, what is correct is a standard of value
chosen by humans
Being able of honesty towards your own heart must be

correct

Born and dropped into this world, from this time always
in suspicion,
Without understanding what is correct, I kept walking
pretending not to see
But after all, what is correct is a standard of value
chosen by humans
Being able of honesty towards your own heart must be
correct

"If there was only one thing I could wish I would like to know who I am"

The young boys closed hand is always trembling Struggling while trying to hold on something which cannot be seen

Juvenile is starting from now on Iâ€™m broken if I donâ€™t escape from here to rise...
