Fundamental difference, trying to define
One man's laughter is another woman's cry
Sentimental reasons never spoken for
Victory or fall

Sentimental difference, writings on a wall
One man's ceiling is another woman's floor
Sentimental ceiling floating in the sky
No matter where you are

Love from far, you're my northern star

Stratosphere is suddenly not high enough

Stradivari isn't sweet and bright
Saddest thing of all, we had it all
Victory or fall

How can you be so together
When world is falling apart
How can you act so crazy
When you are so smart

Sentimental fueling, almost gone
Better said than done

Love from far, you're my northern star
Love from far, no matter where you are.
