"Reason And Faith"

Every day, every night, I've been looking for who we are

I fall and bleed
Have a reason have a faith

In the final hour, of who we are Where does it lead?
Have a reason have a faith

On the road through the woods in the night, I lose my way
So far, so near
Have a reason have a faith

Step across the divide to divine
Can we meet half way
And lose the fear

What's the path (Have a reason, have a faith)
What's the way (Have a reason, have a faith)

Getting closer and closer to you, but I turn away
So far, so near
Have a reason have a faith

Step across the divide to divine, can we meet half way
And lose the fear

And I hope that you're waiting
And so am I
This road is blind (Have a reason have a faith)

And if I touch your hand
And you touch mine
What will I find

What will I find, what will we find
What's the path. Have a reason, have a faith
