"Rights For All"

Visit "Rights For All" on MotoLyrics.com

Any day, any hour
It will open, like a flower
The day will come
Like morning shower
News of justice, news of power

I see urning in your eyes
I will kneel for you to rise
Out of darkness, into light
it will happen

Rights for all, rights for all. Around the world

The day will come

With headline news
For every genius and every fool

The day will come
For you to chose
Fresh as dawn, old as blues

I see urning in your eyes
I will kneel for you to rise
Out of darkness, into light
it will happen

Rights for all, rights for all. Around the world
I would love to see in my life, once and for all Rights
For All
