Stop the truck, hand my keys to the valet
That's the moment that I see her as she leaving
I say excuse me, how could I convince you to stay?
Then my phone goes to ringing in, ringing in (No I don't wanna) but I gotta answer this call
Could you wait, it really won't be long?
(And then the kid came) told me he was my biggest fan
Camera flashes, turn around and she's already gone

Howd I get distracted I
Dont know what happened I
Turn back around and I was just one step too late
Oh you got away away you flew away away ooooh

I lost my Angel in L.A. L.A
(And where she at?) Has anybody seen her?
Im out here checking for my, Angel in L.A. L.A
(And where she at?) Im posting pictures of her
(And where she go?) She got me driving around the backstreets
I thought I saw her walking right past me
I called you didnt answer to your name
Wheres my Angel? Whered you go?
Whered you go? Whered you go?

Howd I get distracted I
Dont know what happened I
Turn back around and I was just one step too late
