Im afraid to say it Dont want you to think Im playing My mistakes take the pretentiousness down like Im standing naked
Hear the crowd and I sorry I know that Im wrong yeah Im wrong
If I could Id go back Im exposed give me back my clothes cause I just cant take it
But look at you, loving a fool, making it easy
I guess its cool naked with you already seen me

Oh you got me so comfortable
Even when Im wrong, comfortable
You dont mind them flaws, youve already seen them all Still got me feeling so comfortable Feeling so comfortable

You keep on forgiving Rewrote all my wrongs in pencil
When you stay it makes me forget that Im down, now its all so simple Till the end, even when, I look dumb like I do when I lie Feels so good letting go Im exposed, you can have my clothes cause Im not afraid
But look at you loving a fool, making it easy
I guess its cool naked with you already seen me

[Chorus]

It dont matter it dont matter no, youve seen it all before
It dont matter it dont matter , youve seen it all
before
It dont matter it dont matter no, youve seen it all
So comfortable, so comfortable, so comfortable

[Chorus]
