You picked the best time, to test my nerve,
We'll pull photos, from our favourite nights,
You hold this, "Is he close enough?"
Get used to, emptiness

We've had enough of you
Look in my eyes, you'll see I'm lying
"I'll take my time to kill you"
You walk alone, in this dead town
And just like the last time, we will say,
Exactly what we want to,
We'll burn your lies

Now this, "the last time", I'll hold my nerve,
You will beg,
For me to stop, just wait
They will all see,
What you're made of,
It's the most, beautiful,

Lie of all

We've had enough of you
Look in my eyes, you'll see I'm lying
"I'll take my time to kill you"
You walk alone, in this dead town
And just like the last time, we will say,
Exactly what we want to,
We'll burn your lies
We'll burn your lies

We've had enough of you
Look in my eyes, you'll see I'm lying
"I'll take my time to kill you"
You walk alone, in this dead town
And just like the last time, we will say,
Exactly what we want to,
(What we want to)
We'll burn your lies
We'll burn your lies
