We've found our way, you better hide
I promise I, won't make this right
That's a liar's smile, it deceived me well
She's running scared, she's running home

Just when you thought, it can't get any worse
The path you chose, won't get you far
Remember this well, these are my final words
She's running scared, she's running home

I'm the Devil, in disguise
You can run girl, but you can't hide

Our precious seconds, now lost with this cause
Only the lonely have saved their time
I won't be held, responsible

She's running scared, she's running home

I'm the Devil, in disguise
You can run girl, but you can't hide

(We've all lost, our way home)
Do you know what you're running from, you've come so far and it's been so long
It's been so long

She's running scared, she's running home

We've all lost, our way home, we've all lost
OUR WAY BACK HOME

(Woah, woah)
I'm the Devil, in disguise
You can run girl, but you can't hide
