So the stakes have changed, is this worth the gamble?
I'd rather take my chance, than carry on like before Proclaim that you're the victim; you're the one who's wrong
You're running out of lies, I'm running out of smiles

Save us, oh save us, save us oh saviour
We're better dead than living a lie
Save us, oh save us, save us from failure
We're better dead than living this lie

Take a part of me, there's so many pieces
She'll pay for this crime, with a lifetime of hate
So much for romance, three cheers for heartache
You watch me sinking; I'm too jaded to swim

Save us, oh save us, save us oh saviour
We're better dead than living a lie
Save us, oh save us, save us from failure

We're better dead than living this lie

Your
Time is up
Your
Time is up

Save us, oh save us
Save us oh saviour
Save us, oh save us
Save us

Save us, oh save us, save us oh saviour
We're better dead than living a lie
Save us, oh save us, save us from failure
We're better dead than living this lie

Save us, save us
