You'll get what you truly deserve soon
We can't be the one's to break it to you
You'll get what's due, in a matter of time
I hope it tastes as sweet as me

Choose your words carefully

Oh lover, you're falling
They're testing your strength, you need to stand strong
Oh lover, are you a lost cause?
Is this how you imagined the end?

They're watching every move you make
They say that history, repeats itself
What goes around, comes around

Over and over again, you replay
The same mistakes
Over and over again, you replay
The same mistakes

What has become of the you we knew?
You're just a shadow of your former self

We know your weakest moment
We know your biggest fear
We know your weakest moment
We're your biggest fear

Over and over again, you replay
The same mistakes
Over and over again, you replay
The same mistakes

Oh yeah!

Over and over again, you replay
The same mistakes
Over and over again, you replay
The same mistakes
