7 in the morning got a wake up look like my name
I have a bath and oil my skin, my hair done like a lion's mane
My corset's laced up nice and tight
Diamonds pearls they feel alright
But when I see you standing there
The evening sun upon your hair
Covered up with garden dirt
With just one glance you tear my skirt
And I say
7 in the morning got a wake up look like my name
I have a bath and oil my skin, my hair done like a lion's
mane
My corset is laced up nice and tight
Diamonds pearls and feel alright
But when I see you standing there
The evening sun upon your hair
Covered up with garden dirt
With just one glance you tear my skirt
And I say.
