Oh Megan
Don't do this Sometimes you can be so foolish
I dropped you at your place
That was yesterday

My thoughts have turned coolish
My intents have become outlandish
I'm in a bad way
Every passing day

So where do we go from here
I'll say "you're a shining star, you'll do great in LA"
and I keep fixing every habit that I break

Oh Megan
Is this thing of ours still on for I havent slept a wink since you have been gone Now I want to be buried in your back yard
And when the flowers grow just know you're still in my heart

A flash of dark interest steers us into a car crash United our remains A fire in your eyes

Our hands touch Unnoticed
Pressed up against melting glass You're calling out my name as the air escapes

So where do we go from here
I'll say "you're a shining star, you'll do great in LA"
and I keep fixing every habit that I break

Oh Megan
Is this thing of ours still on

for I havent slept a wink since you have been gone Now I want to
be buried in your back yard
And when the flowers grow
just know you're still in my heart

So where do we go from here
I'll say "you're a shining star, you'll do great in LA"
and I keep fixing every habit that I break

Oh Megan
Is this thing of ours still on
for I havent slept a wink since you have been gone Now I want to
be buried in your back yard
And when the flowers grow
just know you're still in my heart

Yeah when the flowers grow just know you're in my heart
Yeah when the flowers grow
just know you're in my heart
