Alone, alone, all, all alone,
Alone on a wide, wide sea;
And never a saint took pity on
My soul in agony.

Alone in a world
Blown clear of love,
I groan as I'm hurled,
Bone-crushing shove.
Alone in a world
Blown clear of love.

Averting my eyes,
Hurting within;
Alert to that spy's
Furtive, sly grin.
Averting my eyes,
Hurting within.

Alone, alone, all, all alone,
Alone on a wide, wide sea;
And never a saint took pity on
My soul in agony.

Again I prevail
When dark night falls;
Attention can't fail
When duty calls.
Again I prevail

When dark night falls.

Awhile I remain,
File these cold bars;
A smile, then disdain,
Guile, and then scars.
Awhile I remain,
File these cold bars.

Alone, alone, all, all alone,
Alone on a wide, wide sea;
And never a saint took pity on

My soul in agony.

Adrift on oceans,
Shifted by waves,
A gift in motion
Lifts from the grave.
Adrift on oceans,
Shifted by waves.

Amazed, resolute,
Gazing nearby;
I raise a salute,
Praise God, and die.

Alone, alone, all, all alone,
Alone on a wide, wide sea;
And never a saint took pity on
My soul in agony.
