I thought I had found true bliss;
I caught it with that first kiss.
Yeah, she brought me to my knees;
As I knelt, I whispered, "Please."

"Please take the time to know me,
To make new worlds to show me.
Do this for your sake and mine."
It was then she crossed the line.

My mind shot this bulletin out,
A clear and present danger shout:
Be on the lookout!
There's not any doubt;
She's so obvious,
Sexy, serious,
Charmed and dangerous.
Charmed and dangerous.

She stroked my cheek so lightly,
Then she spoke so politely:
"I'm supposed to steal your heart,
And you know that's just the start."

"I'm dressed for a larger goal;
It's best I kidnap your soul.
I want all of you for me,

Caressed in captivity."

My mind shot this bulletin out,
A clear and present danger shout:
Be on the lookout!
There's not any doubt;
She's so obvious,
Sexy, serious,
Charmed and dangerous.
Charmed and dangerous.

My head said, "Put up a fight!"
Instead, we made love all night.
She led, and I soon followed.

By dawn, we were on the road.

Now, we're fleeing from the law,
Fugitives from love's seesaw.
And we know we'll always be free,
As long as we both agree:
We're obviously
Sexy, serious,
Downright delirious.
No harm can come to us.
We're charmed and dangerous.
We're charmed and dangerous.
We're charmed and dangerous.
