I know how you feel;
I can see your pain.
I heard your appeal,
Crying in the rain.
I can help you heal;
Help you walk again.
I know how you feel.

Did you feel heat?
I felt it too.
Pure love so sweet,
Found me and you.

I felt just like you;
I was down and out.
No one appeared true;
Lies were spread about.
Nothing I could do;
Plagued by fear and doubt.

I felt just like you.

Did you feel heat?
I felt it too.
Pure love so sweet,
Found me and you.

I found a new friend
When I looked higher.
His love never bends;
His love never tires.
A friend without end
Pulled me from the fire.
I found a new friend.

Did you feel heat?
I felt it too.
Pure love so sweet,
Found me and you.
