If I were a queen she said hey hey I said you know Amy
I'd need a king she said hey hey I said you know Amy
So I'm not afraid she said hey hey I said you know Amy

She'll love you blindly with all her heart
But if you touch her there she'll fall apart
She'll kiss you sweetly with all her might
But if you try too hard she'll say goodbye
You know Amy

If I ruled the world she said hey hey I said you know
Amy
I'm still your little girl she said hey hey I said you know
Amy

She'll hold you truly with burning stares
And if you hide the sunshine she'll meet you there
She'll fall completely in a lullaby

But if you try too hard she'll wonder why
She'll wonder why but you know Amy
You know Amy

I'm feeling a space she said hey hey I said you know
Amy
Love's a hurricane she said hey hey I said you know
Amy
You know Amy

She'll love you blindly with all her heart
But if you touch her there she'll fall apart
She'll kiss you sweetly with all her might
But if you try too hard she'll say goodbye
She'll say goodbye but you know Amy
You know Amy, you know Amy, you know Amy
Don't say goodbye no not tonight
You know Amy
