she said that things have changed she'd rather walk away i gotta a feeling the same way as (?) dip back three years ago and then he hurt her oh i told her that i'm not that man trust me she said that she couldn't do it tried to explain couldn't get to it that's how its got caught in the way she felt told her that if she stayed our love that i would change she's got me feeling like this thing's for real trust in me has gotta the be the hardest thing don't walk away i'll do whatever it takes (i know you've got) issues but i'm sticking with you i know it ain't easy but you gotta trust me

don't walk away i'll do whatever it takes

told me about her pain told her i've done those things no need to worry i know how she feels i wanna love her right kiss her all through the night hold her and show that this here is real i saw the look in her eye that she may be here in lies i had to take her by the hand and say i will go the distance just to show her that this thing i feel is exactly what it is trust me

don't walk away i'll do whatever it takes
