Living alone in her own little room
In her own little world, oh yeah
Walking alone down her own little street
While the city's asleep, oh yeah
Nobody knows her
She's a lonely girl in a lonely world

At night she sleeps all alone she weeps
With her head on her pillow, yeah
With tears in her eyes
She remembers his smile
As she studies the photograph

They were together
She held his hand and it broke my heart
They were forever
But she turned her back and he was gone

At night she sleeps
Is she dreaming of him
While she's making love to me
At night she sleeps
She keeps calling his name
Imagine what it's doing to me

At night she sleeps by day she hides
Behind the wings of her heroes, yeah
She seals her fate in a car on a date
With some loser from Birmingham

They were together
She held his hand and it broke my heart
I saw them together
I turned around and walked away

At night she sleeps
Is she dreaming of him
While she's making love to me
At night she sleeps
She keeps calling his name
Imagine what it's doing to me
At night she sleeps

At night she sleeps
Is she dreaming of him
While she's making love to me
At night she sleeps
She keeps calling his name
Imagine what it's doing to me

At night she sleeps
Is she dreaming of him
While she's making love to me
At night she sleeps
She keeps calling his name
Imagine what it's doing to me
At night she sleeps

Are you sleeping? Are you sleeping?
Dormez vous
Are you sleeping? Are you sleeping?
Dormez vous
Are you sleeping? Are you sleeping?
Dormez vous
Are you sleeping? Are you sleeping?
