I met a steel town workin' girl
She had the look of all them
Lean, young, built to last, one night girls

I was feeling right at home
I said, baby, take me on
I, I'll show ya how to rock my world, hey

I got a pain down in my heart
Oh won't ya kiss me where it hurts?
Here I go, I'm fallin' apart
Oh won't ya kiss me?

Tore a page from my heart and it's on the ground, oh
yeah
Kiss me where it hurts
You took a hammer and nailed my heart
Come on, girl kiss me right here

Well, we danced the dance all night
I held you close, I swear, girl
It felt just like heaven that night

Women come and women go
And women know how to rake my soul
I need you to need me oh, you rock my world

I got a pain down in my heart
Oh won't ya kiss me where it hurts?
Here I go, I'm fallin' apart
Oh won't ya kiss me?

Tore a page from my heart and it's on the ground, oh
yeah
Kiss me where it hurts
You took a hammer and nailed my heart
Come on, girl kiss me right here

Hangin' out in outer space
Workin' girls they run the place
Ah, I'm on my way

It took a mean town workin' girl
To shake me off of all them
Lean, young, built to last one night girls

I don't know what you've been told
Say goodnight or don't go home
You tell me you love me

I got a pain down in my heart
Oh won't ya kiss me where it hurts?
Here I go, I'm fallin' apart
Oh won't ya kiss me?

Tore a page from my heart and it's on the ground, oh
yeah
Kiss me where it hurts
You took a hammer and nailed my heart
Come on, girl kiss me right here
