Staring out a window at the hotel room
The sun always comes up way too soon
You never really know quite where you are, oh no
Every town looks the same, nothing changes

Running down a road that's way too long
Just the thought of coming home keeps me hanging on
And I just can't find the words to say
That I never thought I'd ever feel this way

Where you gonna spend your precious time
Who you gonna run to when there's no-one left behind
Where you gonna spend your precious time
It doesn't really feel the same, nothing changes

Think of the first time we said goodbye
It isn't any easier, it doesn't heal with time
Remember all the things that we've been through Just close your eyes and I'll be there with you

Where you gonna spend your precious time
Who you gonna run to when there's no-one left
behind
Where you gonna spend your precious time
It doesn't really feel the same, oh

Leaving you just brings me down Can't take another night, night without you, without you

Where you gonna spend your precious time
Who you gonna run to when there's no-one left
behind
Where you gonna spend your precious time
It doesn't really feel the same

Where you gonna spend your precious time
Who you gonna run to when there's no-one left
behind
Where you gonna spend your precious time
It doesn't really feel the same, no
