That's the curse of being young (x4)

You're young.
So what?
I'm young.
So what?

I wish I had a grey hair or two cuz you know I got a lotta junk to do.

So soft.
And smooth.
And young.
Well so what?

Love and tears and pain are my fate.
I gotta another million years of heartbreak.

That's the curse of being young (x4)

Well I know I'm young but I know what's in store for me because I've seen my mama cry from heartbreak
so many times that
I can't believe what my future holds ahead of me.
I can't believe it.

Days of heartache.
And it's years of heartbreak.
And it's a lifetime of heartache for me.

That's the curse of being young...
