Do you hear the silence?
It's stronger than all your words!

Stare right through me
But now the wind blew down her door
And no grace could ever break the raging storm
Everyone knows the truth will come out in a fight
You'll see tonight.
Don't let the world spin around you

Good intentions take a toll
To never bear what's on my soul
Only the lasting breath I'll take
Keep close your life's at stake
It's over no way
(Fuck knows what he says here cause the retarded lyrics are fucking wrong as always) of your everyday
Your everyday

Stare right through me
But now the wind blew down her door
And no grace could ever break the raging storm
Everyone knows the truth will come out in a fight
You'll see tonight.
Don't let the world spin around you

Is there no sleep!
For the, light hearted soul
For the wicked
The dice will roll
Is there, no sleep
Is there
No, sleep
