"Kingdom Come"

Visit "Kingdom Come" on MotoLyrics.com

You spend your life in a cemetery
Looking for light in all the things you've buried
Deep down, six feet off the ground
And you call in salvation
You call in salvation
Down

And the storms roll in
To collect your sins
But your grips too tight
To let them go and let in the light

Your kingdoms come and you've paid the price
You're all alone in your sacrifice
And all the love you ever had has turned to stone

And the throne you've made has become your grave
Your crown's undone from the things you've said
Your faith has all but left you
Your faith has all but you left you all alone

There will be no resurrection
From all things in your possession
All the moments have gone and died
The story of what's left of your life

You call in salvation
You call in salvation
To justify your own damnation
To justify your own damnation

The storms roll in
To collect your sins
But your grips too tight
To let them go and let in the light
