Only time...only keeps you up at night
Just getting older, what nature is holding Gravity is giving way

Miss USA don't you always get your way
Need more eyes to behold, flowers to hold
Kingdom to queen for a day

Miss USA I'll be alright, you'll be okay
And we're bound to see another day

Miss USA knows exactly what to say
And it's the world that she's holding
Selling her soul, where does she sign her name

Miss USA I'll be alright, you'll be okay
And we're bound to see another day

What does the beauty mean on the inside
Only here beneath the eye
Only a little bit older, the eyes of your beholder will shine

Only time, always catches you in time
And this world don't need saving
Eat what your craving
You have already had your day

Miss USA I'll be alright, you'll be okay
And we're bound to see another day
Miss USA

Miss USA I'll be alright, you'll be okay
And we're bound to see another day
