See-saw soldier with your playground war
Don't care for reason what your fighting for Prey on the weaker but I see much more
The weakness in you will bring your fall

I know, I know, I know what your seeing
I know, I know, I know that your believing
Who are, you are, you are leaving
I know, I know you are...screaming yellow, (screaming yellow)

Recess warrior with your broken fall
No one treads beneath your monkey bars
Keep your distance and you'll see another day
Until there's no one to play with, no one to fuck with
No one today

I know, I know, I know what your seeing
I know, I know, I know that your believing
Who are, you are, you are leaving
I know, I know you are...screaming yellow, (screaming
yellow)

See how they run, how they cower away
Keep them in range as the innocence fades
We are the weak...are the weak

See-saw soldier with your playground war
Don't know the reason what your fighting for Prey on the weaker and the weaker pray
Until there's no one to play with, no one to fuck with
No one today

I know, I know, I know what your seeing
I know, I know, I know that your believing
Who are, you are, you are leaving
I know, I know you are...screaming yellow, (screaming
yellow)
Scream, scream...scream more for me, scream more
