Walk away, walk away
It's a shut down
We can try, we can try
Try to work it out

But you will say what you're gonna say, say
Oh you better believe it
Ooo, I won't stay, stay around for you to take
Take me down, down, down

Cause it's a heart crash, a heart crash, a heart crash
We could pretend that it's not the
Heart crash, a heart crash, a heart crash

Take your aim, take a shot
Feel the kick back
I was quick, missed your mark
In the heart attack

We won't always see the snake in the grass
Coming back for us, for us, for us
But the lessons learned from the bridges burned
Stay with me

A heart crash, a heart crash, a heart crash
We could pretend that it's not the
Heart crash, a heart crash, a heart crash

Heart crash, a heart crash, a heart crash
Take down, a break down, a back lash
Heart crash, a heart crash, a heart crash

Sometimes we only believe what we can think we see
From where we're standing on our own two feet
Oh we only see what we know, we know

What good would it do just to send your heart in overdrive
You make a stand and find you're standing on the other side
What good would it do just to think that you'd finally arrived

Heart crash, a heart crash, a heart crash
We could pretend that itâ€™s not the
Heart crash, a heart crash, a heart crash

Heart crash, a heart crash, a heart crash
Take down, a break down, a back lash
Heart crash, a heart crash, a heart crash

Heart crash, a heart crash, a heart crash
Heart crash, heart crash
