I'm A Rich Man by Old Man Luedecke
I am a rich man

My money is my own

I keep it safe at home

In a drawer with my clothes

Where no one ever knows

When I go out walking

Little coins I sow

In the couches that I know

From the holes in my clothes

They jingle as they go

I am a rich man

I am a rich man

No banker or dishman

My girl goes around

To the couches where I've been

She digs down deep therein

Makes the washers and dryers spin

The cycle starts again
