City lights shining bright
You walk along the night street
And watch them through the gloomy prism of your
bored eyes
And you know you can't see their spectrum results
Cause you don't wanna feel it anymore...

What's wrong?
You used to polish your surface
And look like brand new model
It's over, my friend.
What's wrong?
You bare your nerves
And look like insane, dude...
It's over, my friend.

Chorus:
I watch your total destruction,
Who'll inspire you
And bring you that basic happiness?
Watch your total destruction,
Who will bring you that basic happiness?

Cause you have no more strength
To collect your body parts
You tip-toe down to the door of your empty house

There's no room for your love
No one will calm you down
Tonight

What's wrong?
You used to polish your surface
And look like brand new model
It's over, my friend.
What's wrong?
You bare your nerves
And look like insane, dude...
It's over, my friend.

Chorus:
I watch your total destruction,

Who'll inspire you
And bring you that basic happiness?
Watch your total destruction,
Who will bring you that basic happiness?

City lights
Shining bright
City lights shining bright
You walk along the night street
And watch them through the gloomy prism of your
bored eyes
