You called me last night
To say good-bye.
All I have to do is to delete your number

Well, I really couldn't break your heart
It's made of silicon
So hard for your plastic brain
To understand what's going on

I don't wanna live here anymore
This planet is full of plastic people
I don't wanna live here anymore
My orbital home is so cute and pretty.
So what! What! What!

Look, your face is melting
Well, you can use my fridge
To freeze your meltin' nose
To freeze your meltin' ears
Just don't touch my tears
I put them in that lil box
Just don't touch my tears
I put them in that lil box

I don't wanna live here anymore
This planet is full of plastic people

So complicated
for your plastic brain to analyze
So complicated
for your plastic brain to analyze

I really couldn't break your heart
It's made of silicon
Turn it on
It's made of silicon
Turn it on
So what! What! What!

Just don't touch my tears
I put them in that lil box
Just don't touch my tears

I put them in that lil box

So complicated
for your plastic brain to analyze
So complicated
for your plastic brain to analyze
How could I break your heart
It's made of silicon
Turn it on
How could I break your heart
It's made of silicon
Turn it on
