perplexity ruins my life how could it come so far, maybe it was your fault the people around me are chocking me please help me to win this fight this foolishness i live my life with is killing me and it's not finished get me out of here am i just selfish get me out of here i just can't stand it choose who you want to be decide between friend or enemy perplexity ruins my live i know why it came so far, you know now it was your fault i'm choking myself and those around me i know now how to win this fight

get me out of here i just can't stand it
