it was okay to hang out with you but you think you're so great which isn't true I don't like your ways your bad attitude I feel sorry for myself because of you excuse me for trying to be so grateful for all the trust and honesty you didn't fucking deserve it it's over between you and me

I kind of feel sorry for the way you are people like you, you will never make it far I'm depressed 'cause I've wasted my time somehow real embarrassed how hard I was trying
