serve my life on a silver plate stab me in the back, slit my throat, do what you want for apologies it's now to late see what you did, that's what you get, and it's all your fault

so here I stand immortal now on top of you I'm looking down

do you feel my smile stabbing you
you will go down I promise to

I close my eyes and I see you dead enjoy the pain, you're feeling now, you deserved it get over it, there's no way back I don't regret, my decision, not even a bit
