Death and liberation
Is going to an end
No matter who you are
We all need to bow down once for all

Why don't you let yourself go?

Here I am
Just like I've always been before
Didn't dare to take a shot
Now I'm drowning in my plot

Drive me home

My robot is out of shape now
Lead me back to the light of love
Cure my incurable diseases

I know you call it freedom
To follow your own voice
But in the end you'll find your failure
That's why I tell you now

How could you fail to believe
The truth of all mankind?
You laughed at us
You laughed at him
I'm sorry that it ends this way
