kids with no hope lead by guns without fathers, without moms we see them stranded in Babylon goverments proud of their bombs have you ever wondered whos behind?
Can I drink this water or will it make me blind are their descisions made for power, profit or both? go on, blame cut-downs on the greed of humanity people still needs houses to: call it a home
call it a church
call it a job and burn down their temples to feel a sense of importance should we cut off their heads, turn the other cheek or prepare for a second flood take these signs as a warning its all corrupted by a strong demonical force

Call it science or call it astrology I feel the same way for all your hypocrozies Im not attending your party when there is nothing to celebrate Trust me, Im as rotten as you
