I strip your soul, your flesh.
Leaving a carcass, empty, nothing.
I bathe in your misery, filling this hole.
Drowning your tears with this hatred, I have for you...
And every fucking thing you are!

You drop to your knees,
Face collapses with fear.
Heart fills with regret,
This was your way out.
A chance to get free,
Now it has become your ending.

Crushed, defeated.
You are fucking gone.

No more, never again.

With this hatred I have for you,
And every fucking thing you are.

A skeleton remains, bristle but not broken.
My remaining wish, is to break you.
Smash your hopes, till you're a shadow.
Of your mistakes and broken promises!
