"The Pain"

If we are to love again
The pain must end
If we are to live again
The pain must end

And I don't know
Why people go
And we're left alone

If we are to start again
Then forgiveness must begin
If we are to have life again
Then it must come from within

And I don't know
Why people must go
And we're left alone

If we are to love again
The pain must end
If we are to live again
The pain must end

And I don't know
Why people go
And we're left alone
