DEAD MAN'S BONES

you kill the beast
you eat the flesh
playin' drums with a dead man's bones in the scorching sun by the sea of oblivion out of the purple sea from your darkest fantasy comes the golden girl and you sodomize her on hot white sand
you eat the flesh
in the soothing moonlight by the sea of oblivion you dance the night away with the golden girl and she makes every fantasy a sweet living reality
