GOTH GIRLS

possessed by goth girls

they're here and there
and everywhere

they're walking in the moonlight through the misty graveyards they're dancing with vampyres around giant bonfires

and nowhere

and when I reach out to kiss their lips they disappear like morning mist chased by the rising sun
