Can you tell me what you want Cause I've got no idea what I need Is this where we both get off
Can you tell me what you see Cause I'm not sure what I believe Is there room enough for me Got a taste for, what you're feeling Got a taste for...feeling
your touch
I'm so fragile, fragile when you're here
I've got this picture in my head
Where all these people think that I'm mad Just because I'm not like them
I'd like to put you in my head With every dirty secret I have Then there's nothing to explain Got a taste for what for you're feeling
Think I know this much Got a taste for...feeling
your touch
I'm so fragile, fragile when you're here
I'm so fragile, fragile when you're here
I'm so fragile, fragile when you're right here
But I don't mind, I don't mind. I don't mind
