You're wrong, I'm wrong
We keep repeating this like it was a song
But till now we still don't know what went wrong.
It's you, It's me
We keep saying like it was the melody
You're done, I'm done
We make up stories that became the lyrics

In this song are the words that I have failed to say
In its melody are the feelings that just won't go away
And in my heart are your voice, your eyes, your smile
and your face
I would go, I'll move on
But the memories made me stay
But the memories made me stay
But the memories made me stay

I never meant the things I said yesterday
I didn't think I needed you
But since you've been gone, I know I was wrong Never thought your tears would fall the day when we fought
Only knew what you meant to me when you walk out my door

In this song are the words that I have failed to say
In its melody are the feelings that just won't go away
And in my heart are your voice, your eyes, your smile
and your face
I would go, I'll move on
But the memories made me stay

So don't tell me to be strong Tell me how could I move on
When the memories of you, refuse, to let me go
The thought that I'm now on my own
Don't tell me to be strong Don't say that I'll move on
When the memories of you, refuse, to let me go
The thought that I'm now on my on, alone
Baby, please don't say Goodbye

In this song are the words that I have failed to say
In its melody are the feelings that just won't go away
And in my heart are your voice, your eyes, your smile
and your face
I would go, I'll move on
But just know, the memories made me stay
