[Verse 1]

It started out (Right)
It was perfect, nothing was wrong
And then I was convinced that you're the only one
And I thought it would last for the rest of our lives
Boy am I in for a big surprise
Without a doubt, walking 'round thinking
"It's you for sure"
Same place, same time, everyday my life's the same
Seeing you in our school
It's funny how feelings changed overnight
He wouldn't be in another girl's eyes

[Chorus]

Cause baby you're my, heartache
Guess I'm experiencing what they call heartbreak
But it's gonna hurt much more if I'd just stayed here
I know it's 'bout time to go send me packing
Yeah...
Nothing can cure my, heartache
I must be experiencing what they call heartbreak
It'll only get worst if I do nothing but stay here
I know man, but maybe just let me lay here

[Verse 2]

Now I'm all torn up taking up
When I knocked on your door
The first time when you said
Forever I'll be yours
Started taking my hand in your hand
Then feelings got stronger
You made me a promise

And that's when I started feeling, like you're still with me
But it all came crashing down
Lying in my bed, Thinking what went wrong
What am I to do when I wake up
When you're not there

[Chorus]

Cause baby you're my, heartache
Guess I'm experiencing what they call heartbreak
But it's gonna hurt much more if I'd just stayed here
I know it's 'bout time to go send me packing
Yeah...
Nothing can cure my, heartache
I must be experiencing what they call heartbreak
It'll only get worst if I do nothing but stay here
I know man, but maybe just let me lay here
[Pre-Chorus]
Perhaps, it's true
I'm way too young to love
But it's killing me to let you go
Could this be true love
How come I can't let it go
I know I have to deal with the pain

[Chorus]
Cause baby you're my, heartache
Guess I'm experiencing what they call heartbreak
But it's gonna hurt much more if I'd just stayed here
I know it's 'bout time to go send me packing
Yeah...
Nothing can cure my, heartache
I must be experiencing what they call heartbreak
It'll only get worst if I do nothing but stay here
I know man, but maybe just let me lay here
