You said you would be,
Everything you meant to me,
Said you'd make me feel alive,
But you're killing me inside.

And I bet that you knew all the time,
You were gonna hurt me down the line.
Don't try to tell me that's what all moms do,
If that's the case then I'm through with it all.

If you're telling me that love hurts,
Love stinks, love don't make no sense.
Tell me why your love lies, makes me wanna cry.
You're suppose to be friend.
I've never been in love before but I know it's not suppose to feel like this
I've never been in love before but I know I'm not suppose to feel like this

You can't hurt me anymore,
I wont come back like I did before,
So don't try to make me stay
Not that you could anyway.

And I bet you knew all the time,
That you were going to hurt me down the line
Don't try to tell me that's what all moms do,
If that's the case then I'm through with it all

If your telling that love hurts,
Love stinks, love don't make no sense.
Tell me why love lies, makes me wanna cry.
Love's suppose to be my friend.
I've never been in love before but I know it's not suppose to feel like
This
I've never been in love before but I know I'm not suppose to feel like this

If your telling that love hurts,
Love stinks, love don't make no sense.
Tell me why love lies, makes me wanna cry.

Love's suppose to be friend.
I've never been in love before but I know it's not suppose to feel like
This
I've never been in love before but I know I'm not suppose to feel like this
